The team's teacher advisor must sign the statement below:

I affirm that the team abided by all of the rules and regulations of IMMC, did not violate time requirement of the required period and the team members did not consult with anyone who was not on this team in developing the Solution Paper during the contest period.

I have acquired the authorization from Parents/ Guardians of the students mentioned above to give permission for the students to participate in IMMC2022 International Round. In the event that the team is designated as award winner, their names are permitted to be disclosed in the IMMC press release, and their resulting solution paper and/or solution abstract are authorized solely to be published by IMMC and its publications, and be used as samples for academic and professional development. In the event that the team is selected to enter the final presentation round, the students have the permission from the parents/guardians to go to Hong Kong for the presentation competition. The parents/guardians permit to release names of their sons/daughters/wards as award winners to newspapers, radio or television outlets, and other media in recognition of the students' achievement.
